

Quick Draw Sketching classes - Oct'08

Used by many artists as a documenting, exploration and expression tool. You will explore the different techniques and aspects of quick drawing (sketching). Scribble art, line drawing, pen/ink etching and minimalism will be covered.

I've set up a Blog just for this art class and will be a place to find information about current and upcoming classes. As participants of this class, you are welcome to post images of our work online on the blog.

8-week program starts: October 6th, '08
